TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment

Augsburg is a city of considerable antiquity, being the Roman Augusta Vindelicorum which during the Middle ages was one of the foremost towns in Germany. The picture shows the view from the south and includes the Rotes Tor (1822) the old Watertower and the Hospital of the Holy Ghost and (on the extreme left) the beautiful church of St. Ulrich (1474).
